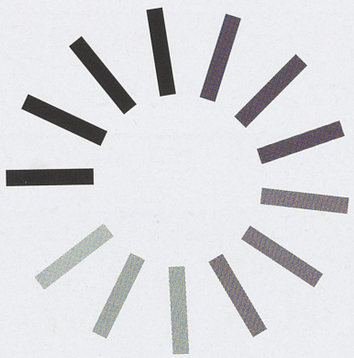
CONNECTING...



Now connecting to your theme

For the 88th edition of Milestones, the yearbook staff has chosen the theme of "Connecting..." Our world today is dominated by advancements in technology, and we are living in a new generation of electronics and social networking. The yearbook staff has chosen to document the 2011-2012 school year in a way that captures this revolution with a cover that models an iPad and "apps" to represent different sections. This book comes complete with QR codes that can be scanned with a smartphone to watch videos from the year.

Through this interactively-themed yearbook, we hope you will feel connected to many aspects of the Harpeth Hall community.

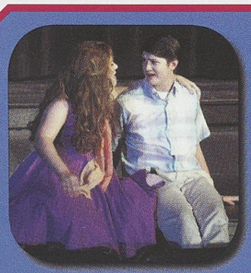
Nothing's Quite the Same In...

The Pajama Game

August 31-September 3, 2011



"My favorite song was "Her Is--Reprise" because I got to serenade John Elam. It's every girl's dream!"

Maggie Griswold, Mae

Q & A

What was challenging about your role?
"This was probably the most challenging role I have ever had. The hardest part of playing Babe was really understanding her character and motives, and portraying those motives effectively. Also, the song "There Once Was a Man" was vocally challenging but so much fun to perform." -Claire Crawford

What was the most enjoyable part of being a techie for this show?
"It was a great show to sew costumes for, what with the colors and patterns from the 50's. A truly whimsical show!" -Mary Liza Hartong

How is the Upper School musical different from your previous experiences?
"Being a freshman, the main difference is that the Upper School musical can be more time consuming but also way more challenging. Everyone seems to care for each other and work together as a family. I loved being a part" -Caroline Sandrell

Claire Crawford & Aaron Ardisson

Anna Russell Thornton & Hunter Woolwine

Q & A

Tell me about how the Shakespeare experience is different and what you liked about it?
" I absolutely loved the show, especially because of all the tiny details the cast honed in on to make it go the extra mile. It was a joy to watch." ~Lilly Carver

How was doing a Shakespeare play a different and rewarding experience for you?
" I really had to slow down and learn to talk slowly and clearly. It was also interesting to work with Denice Hicks, because she really pushed us to analyze each one of our character's lines, so we could really create our character's persona (if you will), and go based off of our gut feelings." ~Elena Carro

What was your favorite memory on or offstage?
"To make sure we actually understood what we were saying, our director had us run the show completely in modern language. It was hilarious, and we learned so much about our characters." ~Ellie Hitt

Q & A

What was your favorite dance?
"My favorite dance from first semester was Valerie. It was a Jazz II dance done to the Glee Cast version of Valerie. The dance was cute and girly, and it was very fun to perform." - Arianna Frederick

What did you think of the theme, in which students and teachers suggested your song choices?
"I love it. I think it really helped broaden the concert selections so that the audience sees dances to songs they know and love." -Joy Burkart

What was your favorite memory from the fall Dance Concert?
"I love the tradition of circle and all coming together before the concert. Although we do this every year and for every show, I think it is the most special time when we can all connect and appreciate all of the hard work we have put in." –Meredith Beyer

Q & A

What made this show different from anything else you have done?
"During dress rehearsals and the actual play, I just remember being extremely hot from all the lights, and my costume was a heavy cotton button-down with overalls, leggings, really furry slippers, and wool gloves." ~ Grace Claybrook

What was your favorite song from the show?
"My favorite song was 'Little Girls.' The song was full of fun moments! I was able to endlessly complain without annoying anyone and swing a doll around my head." ~ Kristen Barrett

What is something fun the cast did backstage?
"Playing Mr. Warbucks, I got to experience what it was like to be a father. I got to watch a little girl grow up, overcome her problems, and make the right choices. It's a bond that only a father will experience, and I got that playing Mr. Warbucks." ~ Callie Jane Simmons

How was working with Bruce Miller, our artist in residence?
"Mr. Miller is incredibly talented and took our show to an entirely different level. He really helped us understand the dynamics of farce and gave us tangible ways to apply certain elements of comedy to our show with particular regard to pace, timing and hitting the punchline." ~ Claire Crawford

How did you bond as a cast?
"I think our greatest moment together happened in the middle of our Friday night show. Brianne felt really sick during the performance and at intermission we all gathered downstairs to figure out a game plan. We wanted the best for Brianne and were thinking of ways that we could cover for her if she needed to leave the stage. What emotions are you feeling before the curtain rises on Opening Night?
"Before the curtain goes up, and I enter the stage, I feel a lot of emotions. I am nervous, but excited. I am ready to show people what I have been working on for hour after hour for months. It's really exciting to be able to show off what I have learned over the semester. Hearing the audience clap after a number is the best reward for what we do. It's great to know that the audience enjoyed seeing my performance."~ Anne Davis Parks

The runners stood on the starting line, music was pumping from portable speakers, teammates cheered and danced, the gun fired. Runners sprinted out over the rolling hills of the course. Maintaining a steady pace throughout each race and pushing hard all the way to the finish is how the Bears proved their resilience.

The strength of the team was exhibited early on when the team won the Kenwood Classic on Aug. 25. However, as the season continued, varsity runners Allie Polk, Olivia Hurd and Caroline Hawkins had to drop out with injuries.

Despite these misfortunes, the team was determined to do their best at state. In the end, the girls overcame adversity and took state championship. "We completely grew as a team. I am so proud of every single girl," said senior runner Caroline Hawkins.

This year the Cross Country girls all agreed that they quickly became more than just a team: they were a family. Avery King says, "One of the things I will remember forever is the hearts Coach Parks gave us, we hooked them to the laces of our running shoes, and while we were running we could look down and see that heart (the heart of our x-country family!)".

The Honeybears collectively described their little family as: "enthusiastic, encouraging, determined and inspiring", qualities often needed during their difficult practices.

On top of their winning qualities, memories are not hard to come by with this team! Emma says, "My favorite memory was when we all decided to have our workout and then run to Anna Grace Cole's house where we jumped in the pool and had to run back soaking wet". From dominating at the HVAC Championship, to chillin' at the pool, the Bears will never forget their season!

New head coach Carter Henderson summed up the season perfectly: "The 2011 season for the golf team was highlighted not by wins or remarkable achievements, but by the enjoyment and camaraderie the players shared in working hard together..." One junior player said of the Region Tournament, "This is the first year that we have stayed to see where we finished."

Emily Apple qualified for the State as an individual, shooting 93, with Maddie Angell a near qualifier with a 95.

The last week of the season, the team was fortunate to have Alan Williams of 'Teammates Matter' lead a team discussion on the challenges of being a teammate in a sport where you play by yourself...This proved to be a valuable moment for the team and definitely brought them closer together.

"Some of my most cherished memories will always be late summer afternoons at Golf Club of TN," said Junior team member Rena Clayton Rolfe, "Also playing an entire round in the pouring rain with Alexis and Meredith."

Looking back on their season, the middle school Honeybears described the team as, "hard working, brave, loud, outgoing, and energetic."

The "hard working" personality of the team allowed them to have some notable wins against Ensworth and USN. "Our best game was when we played USN and beat them 6-0" says center mid-fielder Cammie Douglass. In order to get revved up before a big game and get the mojo flowing, the Honeybears had a few interesting pre-game rituals. One of these included some of the JVA girls putting dried coconut in their shoes! Anything to beat the Tigers!

The girls' favorite memories ranged from watching Jordan throw in the ball after doing a front handspring to playing scrimmages and drills against the coaches. "...everything we did in practice made us work hard yet was fun at the same time. It was great!" concludes Olivia Clair Shephard.

Senior middle blocker Margaret Lowe looks back at the season saying, "For the past four years, being able to start the year knowing that you already have a group of girls who will always be there for you has truly been a blessing."

Along with winning the Silver Bracket at a tournament in Memphis, the team once again made it to the State tournament this year where they lost in the Quarterfinals.

Anne Coogan and Margaret Lowe led the team throughout the season with their senior spirit, both on and off the court. Coach Gray commented on the senior leaders saying, "I could not have asked for better seniors this year. It has been an honor to coach these two young ladies, and we will certainly miss them next year."

If you ask one of the players to describe the season they would probably say it was average. They won some, they lost some. If you ask them to describe the tournament, however, they would tell a different story.

This team entered the tournament as the clear underdog, a fifth place seed. Day 1: David Lipscomb, whom they lost to the week prior. They secured a victory this time. Day 2: Nashville Christian, whom they lost to in the first match of the season. This rematch was a victory. Day 3: DCA. Game 1 goes to DCA. Game 2 goes to Harpeth Hall with Caroline Seeley serving. Game 3 is a battle to the finish, with Shelby Nutter serving while DCA led 14-10. One missed serve, one bad pass and the victory would have been DCA's. Not only did the Bears serve six straight, but they fought for six straight rallies. They left the championship victorious.

Led by five eighth graders and Coach Otts, the JVA volleyball team finished the season with 7 wins. The roster was filled out with seven seventh graders.

Despite breaking a light in the middle of practice, Anna Clarke describes the season as fun. Teammate Hannah Hayes agrees that the season was light hearted, but adds that they worked hard and learned a lot about the game.

Practices included drills brought down from the upper school varsity team and scrimmages the A team several times. Perhaps their best match was their last match of the season as described by Coach Otts. The team pulled all their skills together and played as a solid unit, covering the court and calling for balls.

Fifteen fearless 6th graders and eight eager 5th graders made up the hard working volleyball team this year. Many of the girls were new to the sport but did not let that intimidate them one bit! The girls not only spent the year crushing their opponents by upwards of 15 points, but also gaining a greater knowledge of the game as well.

The "spirited, sporty, funky" Bears, as many of the girls described themselves, give much of the credit to their passionate coach, Mrs. Graves. Olivia Holden lovingly notes, "My favorite thing about my coaches was their attitude. They were always so encouraging to everyone."

This encouragement allowed the teams to reach far beyond their potential and finish the season successfully. The future looks bright for the Middle and Upper school volleyball programs. In the words of Marguerite Coombs, "Go Bears and go volleyball!"

US Basketball

Most young teams would tremble at the thought of only having one senior member, but not these Bears! Taylor Heinze is no ordinary senior. She led the basketball "family" in a tremendous season and always stepped up when the team needed her most. Taylor's leadership combined with the team's cohesiveness led the girls to a memorable senior night victory. Emily Apple retells the night: "Every person on the team was focused and prepared to win. Taylor hit 5 threes which was a really great way to celebrate her last game in Morrison. Morale was high, and everyone was excited to play...It was the first senior night we've won since I started high school, and one that I'll never forget."

The season was filled with memories. Senior Taylor Heinz leaves her Bears saying the team excursion to the lake last summer was by far her favorite. The memories bonded the Bears and led them to a more than impressive season.

With intense practices and determined players who share a passion for the game, the middle school A team played their way through a victorious season.

During a winter tournament, the girls played a hard-worn game against Ezell Harding. Sloane Fuller explains the ongoing rivalry between the two schools: "Ezell Harding had already beaten us by 14 points during the second game of the season. After a double overtime, we won! It was our first win, and from that point on, we were golden."

Lee Lee Johnson feels that the basketball team has become another family for her. During tough workouts and grueling drills, the girls formed bonds that surpassed those of ordinary teammates.

Although the team had a rocky start to the season, they pulled through to win the "AA" HVAC championship.

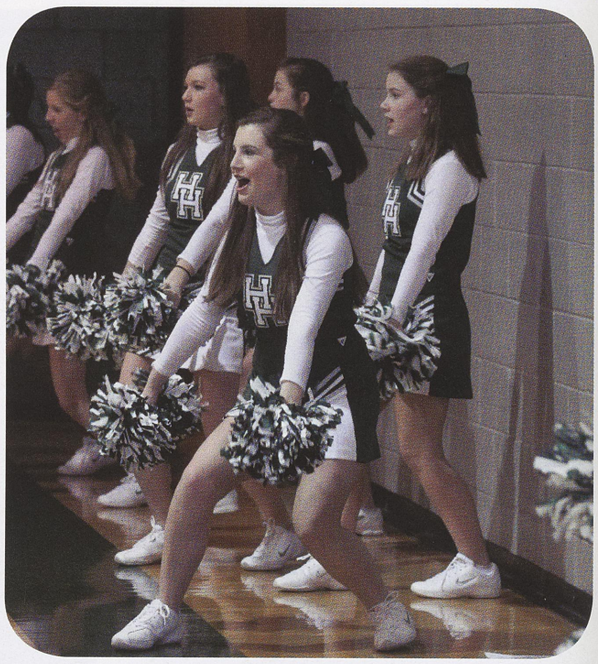
The MS B basketball team's season began with eight young players eager to compete with any starting lineup in the league. By all accounts, the Bears had a successful season, and in the words of one of the players, the girls were always, "full of energy."

During the times of adversity, leadership emerged. Namely, Kate Sullivan became team captain and leader for the Bears. She served as an extension of the coach on the court and was determined to do what she could to win games. Under her leadership,the younger players developed confidence and improved their skills and creative decision making on the court. As sole eighth grader, Taylor Hardin also led her teammates with great determination.

Lessons such as determination, playing hard no matter the outcome, teamwork and sportsmanship were key players this winter.



MS Cheerleading

What would a game be without fans cheering loudly from the stands?! Leading the pep in Morrison Gym is the one and only cheer squad! The team had record breaking numbers of girls spiking upwards of 20 members!

The team brought pep and style to the school at nearly every middle school game. The squad had so much fun and learned a thing or two about how to strike their "v's" and do the perfect hurkey too. The team's peppiest member had to be their coach who "always encouraged us," says Helena Blevins. The girls favorite memories include the games at MBA, the championship game, team bonding, and the BA game.

The squad definitely "had the beat, the beat to defeat!" They defeated the other teams in spirit and school pride.

When describing their team, Coach Gough and Coach French said "These girls improved their skills tremendously over the season and had a great time growing as a team. We were so impressed by the effort they showed and applaud all of the girls who showed up over Winter Break to receive some extra practice."

Dribbling, passing, and shooting fundamentals were key goals during practices. These skills were put on display in various scrimmages throughout the year, a team favorite.

That hard work paid off. "We had one game against The Covenant School and were thrilled to have points scored by Nealy Anderson and Sam Lance," said Coach Gough. The season ended with a scrimmage between the 5th/6th teams.

With five seniors leading the way, anything short of a winning season is nearly impossible. One of the team's final matches of the season was against DCA in a 6 pin victory clinching a place in the State Championship. To top it off, the team claimed a much anticipated victory over the Wildcats to earn the district title. "It was also our first time ever beating them, in my four years of bowling," said senior, Aneesa Anderson.

The bowling team finished with a near perfect season with a record of 11-1 winning the Middle District Championship. The girls appreciated the support from Coach Womack "He is constantly cheering us on. Even if we don't score our best that day, he will still support us," said sophomore Khadijah Naeem.

Senior Lucy Cohn-Still, who qualified for the individual state championship, said, "I just liked us all laughing together, and bowling.

With twelve spirited seniors to lead, eleven returning sophomores and juniors, and the addition of ten talented freshmen, it was evident quite early that it was going to be a great season according to Coach Linden.

Prior to the winter holidays, HH faced Oakland and Brentwood High, securing victories in both meets. Early season meets are a time to try out new relay combinations, to see how the team has matured in the off-season, and to see where the freshmen fit best in the line-up. All indications were pointing towards a successful season.

The team qualified nineteen girls for the State Championships. Coming off a second place finish in 2011, where they trailed the lead team, Baylor, by 284 points, the Bearacudas were looking to bridge that gap a bit. And bridge it they did! The strength and depth of the team was evident at the State meet as they pulled to within 40 points of the defending champions. Out of 115 teams, the Bearacudas ranked number two in the State.

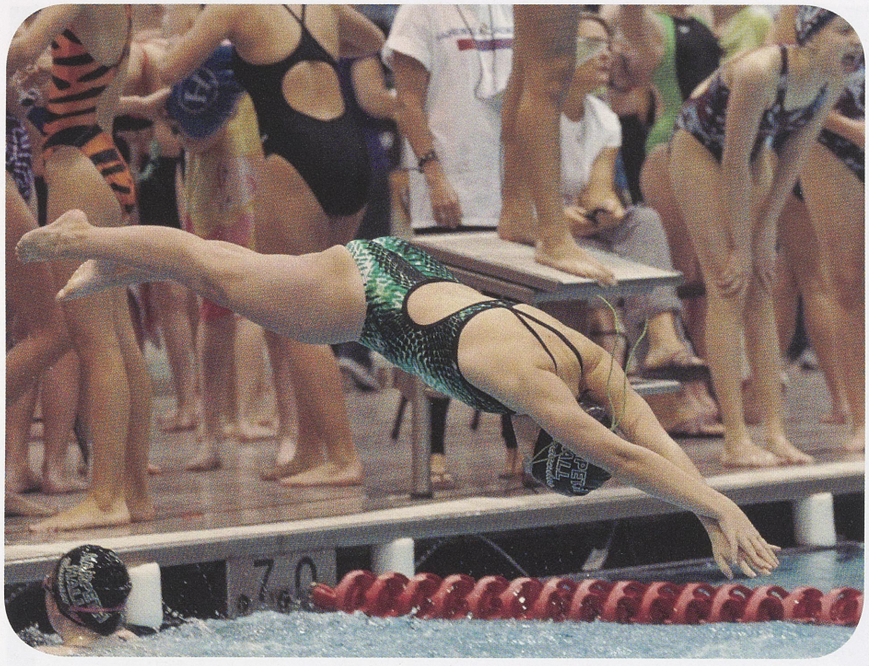
Both the upper and middle school divers made quite a "splash" this year in every meet they competed in. Both the upper and middle schoolers competed in the Excel meet where the high school team took first and the middle schoolers did equally well.

However, success did not come without an equal amount of hard work as emphasized by 8th grade diver, Helena Blevins. The team's hard work came to a head at the State Meet for the upper school and the Middle TN Middle School Championships. "It is your one chance to show off everything you have learned, and all eyes are on you," says Sophomore Casey Schwartz. From somersaults to twisters, the girls always gave it their best and proved victorious.



MS Swimming

The swim season this year spanned four months, but the girls kept their enthusiasm alive until the end. "Our girls were dedicated and hardworking this season. We had fun at practices and meets, singing, joking around and making best times for bribes of cookies," said Coach Kelly Broderick. The hard work paid off. The team won the MTHEA Makos Invitational and a meet against rival GPS.

"Our team was funny and could always make me laugh," said eighth grader Caroline Scudder. "A funny memory was when we did synchronized swimming, and everyone else at the meet gave us odd glances." Before starting meets, the girls would build energy by yelling cheers like "Give a Yell."

"We finished this season strong placing first in our final meet the Middle Tennessee Middle School Swimming and Diving Championship. Our girls were dedicated and hardworking this season." Coach Broderick

"The Honeybears fought hard this season. Two matches ended in Sudden Victory and we finally brought it together with a fantastic victory over GPS in Chattanooga. Our Senior Captains, Ali Little, Leah Caplan, and Anne Coogan led us well throughout the season. I think this season will go down asone of the toughest for the Bears: two concussions, pulled calf, strained hip, mono, turf toe, the flu, collarbone, etc." said Coach Vest.

Even though the team lacked several of their starting players, they pulled it together during the playoffs against Franklin.

Players acknowledged the spirit of Coach Vest and her aid to their success. "I love how excited she gets when the team plays well together and how proud she makes us feel when we've done a good job," said Junior Alexandra Thornton. Coach Vest along with her three assistant coaches took the team all the way to the second round of the [illegible] Tournament!

Thirty two athletes made the lacrosse team this year. This not only thrilled the coaches but also made for an impressive year as noted by the head coach. Even more astounding was that six of those girls were 6th graders.

Not even tornadoes and a little thunderstorm here and there could keep these girls down. A few practice cancellations due to weather caused the team to have a rough start, but "The turning point of our season came in the game against Hutchison on April 14," said Coach Brown. "Although the girls did not win, they proved how tough they are against one of the best Middle School teams in the state. The team went on to have notable wins against Grassland and BMS."

During the season, and especially in their final match, the team fought for every ground ball, every catch and every pass according to Coach Brown, as she is quick to remind the team that hard work and dedication go a long way.

"The will to win cannot be beat you gotta wanna win," can be heard ringing across the softball fields on any given game day. This is just one of the many game rituals the seniors led the team in throughout the season. The seniors did an amazing job of bringing the team together early on. Team sleepovers and dinners helped make the team cohesive on and off the field. It will be hard for Coach Linden to see her seniors go: "These seniors have been the life blood of our team. They love the sport, they demand the best of themselves at all times, and they lead by example."

She adds, "With strength and speed in our line-up, the team was able to put runs on the board. As it was, once they started to score, they tended to get on a roll. In regular season games, the Honeybears combined to score 147 runs, while holding their opponents to 55."

This team's will to win certainly could not be beat as they experienced a "home run" of a season.

MS Softball

At the season's start, the team had only four returning 8th graders and nine new players. This posed a challenge to the team, since they had to create a line-up from scratch. According to Coach Elizabeth Nelson, "with no positions locked in and not even having a starting pitcher, our challenge was trying to put together the best nine girls to compete."

Within the first few weeks, however, the girls had improved and a line-up emerged. "They went out onto the field and worked hard", Coach Nelson explains. The team had some early victories against USN, Lipscomb, and Poplar Grove, with the employment of their "best offensive weapon", bunting. Through frequent substitutions, all of the girls were able to "contribute to the overall success of the team", Coach Nelson says..

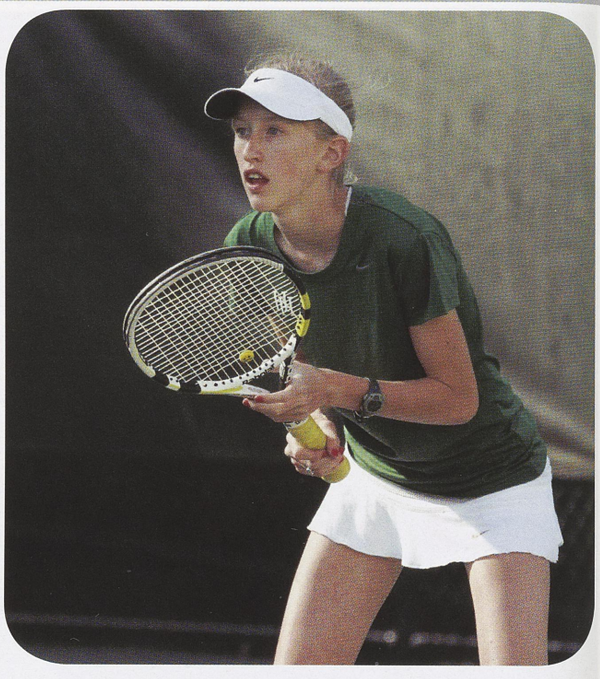
As a senior she led our team at the #1 spot in both singles and doubles with an incredibly strong showing in the later half of the season. The doubles tandem of Liza Southwick and Emma Alsup also represented HH in the doubles at State.

We had a tremendous showing from our freshmen, Emma Alsup and Lizzie LeBleu, this season. They were an integral part of our success in both singles and doubles. The fab 3 sophomores as they call themselves (Megan Beto, Emma Reineke, and Sam Hopp) were our most improved players this season. With a year under their belt they started to hit their stride and showed much more maturity in shot selection and mental toughness," said Coach Baker of the season.



MS Tennis

The Honeybears finished the season with a 9-0 record. To top it off, the girls ended the season as HVAC Tournament champions. "With all of the efforts of these girls, they peaked just at the right time. Their determination when they were down, unmatched enthusiasm as they soared ahead, and their sportsmanship at all times, shows that the 11 girls of this team set their goals to great heights," says Caoch Southwick.

The girls played brilliantly all season and seventh grader Grace Claybrook was undefeated in her #2 singles position. Both sets of doubles had outstanding seasons. Maggie Kunkel and Bailey McCarthey had a record of 8-1 and they won their finals match against BA.

The tennis team had a strong season and Coach Southwick dedicated the numerous victories to Patty Chadwell, who passsed away this spring at the age of 96.

"On an athletic team depth and talent are a combination that generates success. However, this combination only reaches its goal when accompanied by commitment, hard work and determination. The 2012 track team has been highly successful this year because it possesses this combination. All of the parts have come together to create the whole. Undefeated in the regular season, this year's team won the Highland Games and the Hill Center Relays (Nashville Track and Field Championship) and was runner-up in the Doug Hall relays missing first place by only two points. The regular season meets and the invitational meets have pitted the Bears against all of the top teams in the Mid-State with only one loss to one team. If you compute our W-L record like other sports, it would be 60-1," says Coach Russ. Unseasonably warm spring weather and injuries could not sideline this team who channeled strength before every meet with their favorite cheer: "The will to win cannot be beat, you gotta wanna win!"

Practices usually consisted of running a lap and half around the track and then straight into dynamic warm ups. Mattie

Sometimes life is messy,
even confusing;
But you've always been able to wear a big smile and float on!
So hats off to you;
The training wheels are gone, and it is time for you to ride on your own.
We know you will be successful!

"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. There is no law against such things" ~Galatians 5:22-23

Claire

"To laugh often and much; To win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; To earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; To appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; To know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded."
Ralph Waldo Emerson

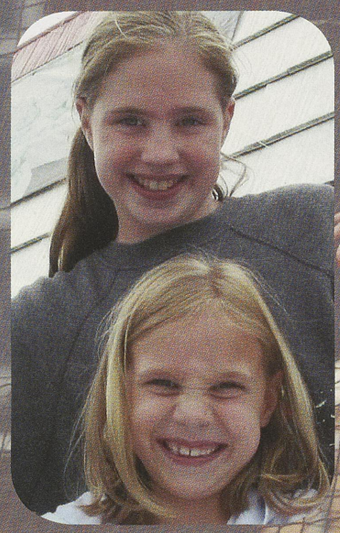
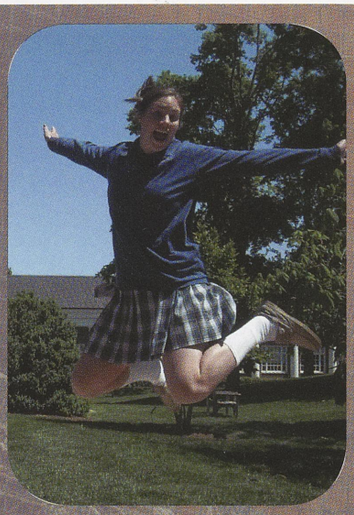
Katelyn



Katelyn,
Do not chase after happiness as though it is something you can obtain from outside yourself. Choose to be happy on the inside and give joy to others. Believe you were born to dance...created by God to make a difference in people's lives.
With love,
your family



Morgan

Love of my Life...Since the day you were born, you have been an immeasurable blessing. You are loyal, honorable, kind, strong, capable...a lovely young woman. As you leave me to embark on your new life, remember you are loved deeply and completely.

I know you will be a treasure to every person you encounter. Always remember to live with grace, class and dignity... "to thine own self, be true."
I love you all the way up to Heaven, Lovebug!
Momi

Aneesa

Everyday that we look at you we are reminded of the beauty of life.
We love you and it has been our pleasure watching you grow into such an amazing young woman.
We admire you & look forward to watching and supporting you as you continue to journey on this thing called life.

Enjoy life and always cherish the moment.
